

Official Conference Sponsor

Economic and Industrial Espionage Conference 2018

University of Portsmouth

Monday 25th June, 2018

AGENDA

Morning Plenary Sessions - Chair: Emma Shaw (Rm #)

08.30-09.25	Registration and Visit Conference Exhibitors
09.25-09.30	Welcome Address: Professor TBC, University of Portsmouth
09.30-09.50	Keynote Address: Centre for the Protection of the National Infrastructure (CPNI)
09.50-10.15	Economic and Industrial Espionage: Scale, Trends and Threat, Professor Mark Button, University of Portsmouth
10.15-10.35	UK National Authority for Counter Eavesdropping, TBC
10.35-10.50	Investigating Divine Manipulation of The Commercial Threads: A UK Economic & Industrial Espionage Research Project, Kevin Larkins MSc
10.50-11.00	Q & A

11.00-11.30	Refreshments served in Richmond 'Cafe' located on ground floor.
-------------	--

Late Morning Sessions 11.30-13.00 – Chair: Professor Mark Button

11.30-12.00	Intellectual Property Office TBC
12.00-12.30	Convenience vs Security – Dominic Turl, Head of Technical Services, Esoteric Ltd Fighting espionage in a connected world
12.30-12.50	Aspects of Criminal Law regarding Economic and Industrial Espionage in Austria and Switzerland Similarities and Differences between an EU and a non-EU member state, Dr. Cathrine Konopatsch, LL,M. Institute for criminal law, white collar crime and international criminal law University of Bern, Switzerland
12.50-13.00	Q & A

13.00-13.45	Buffet lunch & refreshments served in Richmond 'Cafe' located on ground floor.
-------------	---

Afternoon Sessions 13.45-15.45 Chair Emma Shaw

13.45-14.15	Espionage – A Corporate Perspective Bill South, Director of Security & Lindsay Wright, Director of Strategy, Brand & IR William Hill plc
14.15-14.45	Panel Discussion
14.45-15.15	Snatched Secrets: Reporting trade secrets theft, Modelling a firm’s decision to report a theft of trade secrets , Dr. Nicola Searle and Dr. Atin Basuchoudhary, Goldsmiths, University of London
15.15-15.45	Preventing Industrial Espionage - a case study of smuggling dual-use technology in Sweden , Peter Stiernstedt, Lecturer, University of West London and Per Gustafson, CSO, Lund University, Sweden.

15.45 -16.00	Afternoon refreshments served in Richmond ‘Cafe’ located on ground floor.
--------------	---

Afternoon Plenary Sessions:

16.00-16.30	Obtaining justice? Outcomes of criminal proceedings in cases of economic and industrial espionage , Susanne Knickmeier, Max Planck Institute for Foreign and International Criminal Law, Germany
16.30-17.00	An Empirical Study on the Major Factors Influencing the Intention to Leak Proprietary Knowledge of Technology by R&D Workers in SMEs in Korea , JunHyoungh Lee, Ph.D student, University of Portsmouth
17.00	Social Engineering: Dealing with the Insider threat, TBC
	Conference Close: Professor Mark Button, University of Portsmouth

Conference programme is subject to possible change.

This conference counts for 14 CPD credits for the Security Institute

<https://security-institute.org/cpd/>